826

NEWS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

on Respiratory Disease in Children and Adolescents has published its fourth edition of a list of training programs in pediatric respiratory disease in the August 1970 issue of the American Review of Respiratory Disease. This should be useful to physicians seeking advanced training in this specialty field. Reprints of the list may be obtained on request from the Division of Medical Education, American Thoracic Society, 1740 Broadway, New York, New York 10019.

A fellowship in Pediatric Allergy is announced for the year beginning July 1, 1971, at Henry Ford Hospital, Detroit, Michigan. Applicants should have completed 2 core years of pediatric training. For information contact John A. Anderson, M.D., Division of Allergy and Clinical Immunology, Henry Ford Hospital, 2799 West Grand Boulevard, Detroit, Michigan 48202.

Pediatric Allergy and Immunology Fellowship at the New York Medical College-Metropolitan Hospital Center, 1901 First Avenue, New York, New York 10029. Service available July 1st: length of appointment 1–2 years. Requirements: 1 year internship plus 1 year pediatric residency. U.S. citizenship: no. Director of program is Arie Ribon, M.D.

The Department of Pediatrics of the University of Cincinnati Medical Center announces a 1 year fellowship in adolescent medicine beginning July 1, 1971. Applicants should have completed 2 core years of pediatric, internal medical, or family practice training. For further information write Joseph L. Rauh, M.D., Adolescent Clinic, Cincinnati General Hospital, Cincinnati, Ohio 45229.

The Department of Pediatrics of the University of Pittsburgh School of Medicine offers 1- or 2-year fellowships in Ambulatory Care or in Community Pediatrics. The program is supported in part by a training grant from the National Institute of Child Health and Human Development. Applicants should have completed a minimum of 1 year of pediatric residency. For further information write to Jack L. Paradise, M.D., at the Children's Hospital of Pittsburgh, 125 DeSoto Street, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15213.

Correction

The notice on page 485 of the September 1970 issue of Pediatrics, “Institute for Physicians and Nurses in the Care of Premature and Other High-Risk Infants,” should have stated that the Institutes are sponsored by the New York State Department of Health and the United States Department of Health, Education, and Welfare.
CORRECTION
Pediatrics 1970;46;826

The online version of this article, along with updated information and services, is located on the World Wide Web at:
http://pediatrics.aappublications.org/content/46/5/826