

Supplemental Information

SUPPLEMENTAL FIGURE 1

Age distributions of children admitted to hospital with influenza B and seasonal influenza A, stratified by underlying health status. Note that for the 0- to 5-month age group, a vaccine-indicated condition refers to an underlying condition for which influenza vaccination is particularly recommended in individuals aged ≥ 6 months, and does not indicate that influenza vaccination should be given to this age group.